

Corporate

BHGR's Corporate Group offers our clients sophisticated legal services at every phase of the business lifecycle.

Our Corporate Group helps entrepreneurs, private equity and venture capital investors, and emerging and established businesses achieve their unique corporate, financial, and transactional objectives and goals. We are a full-service practice group, offering legal services in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, business organization, general corporate matters, commercial leases and contracts, financing arrangements, loan and credit agreements, and other business transactions such as equity financings, intellectual property, licensing, supply and manufacturing agreements, privacy and data security, and data transfers.

Focus Areas

GENERAL CORPORATE

Our attorneys provide a wide range of general corporate services, including assistance with choice of entity, business formation, corporate governance, strategic planning and alliances, reorganization and restructuring, commercial arrangements, and securities law matters. We also negotiate, draft, and review commercial contracts of all kinds. These include leases, distribution agreements, licenses, and joint venture, manufacturing, master services, consulting, independent contractor, supply, and vendor agreements.

FINANCING

Our attorneys represent clients in need of private and commercial financing. We have extensive experience negotiating and drafting credit and loan agreements, deeds of trust, promissory notes, and security agreements as well as capital raising through the sale of convertible debt, SAFEs, and common and preferred stock sales. We also assist angel investors and venture capital investors, investing in private companies.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTING

From proposal drafting through the successful conclusion of projects, our attorneys have considerable experience representing contractors in all phases of government contracting with federal, state, regional, and local authorities.
