

Insurance Coverage

BHGR's Insurance Group is one of the most experienced insurance coverage law groups in the Rocky Mountain Region.

BHGR's Insurance Group represents individuals and businesses in all aspects of insurance coverage review and consultation as well as insurance litigation. Our experience in litigating complex insurance coverage disputes helps us to better anticipate and avoid the problems that can arise before and after a claim occurs, allowing us to better serve our clients seeking front-end insurance coverage counseling. We have extensive experience with a broad range of insurance policies, including commercial general liability, commercial property, builder's risk, directors and officers, professional liability, homeowners, automobile, business-interruption, and environmental site liability policies.

Focus Areas

COVERAGE REVIEW & CONSULTATION

Our attorneys assist our clients in securing appropriate insurance coverage to protect against potential liability and ensure business or personal assets are protected. We review and negotiate insurance policies to minimize the likelihood that disputes with insurance carriers will arise after a claim is reported, saving our clients time and money. We also have knowledge of the insurance brokerage market and routinely work with brokers to obtain quotes and negotiate appropriate policy endorsements for our clients.

INSURANCE LITIGATION

Our attorneys represent our clients in state and federal courts who are seeking to enforce insurance coverage or recover policy proceeds. We have considerable experience with complex insurance coverage disputes, construction defect claims, and bad faith breach of insurance contract claims. Our attorneys have contested coverage decisions issued by nearly every major insurer in the domestic insurance market as well as in the London insurance market.
